- Sharon King, Andersen Windows
- Eric Hoffman, Datastream Connexion
- Mike Huntley, Youth Service Bureau

Together, they are bringing their passion, expertise, and leadership to United Way of Washington County-East.

Also, let's celebrate Terry Thomas, Washington County Director of Community Corrections, on his new role as Board President. Terry's dedication, leadership, and commitment to our community make him the perfect person to guide our mission forward. We're excited for his vision and impact in the year ahead!

Serving on our board is more than a leadership role – it's an opportunity to collaborate with community leaders who are dedicated to improving lives, contribute unique skills that drive our mission forward, and bring fresh perspectives that enrich discussions and decision-making.

Our board members also gain valuable insight into the most pressing needs in our community and take an active role in providing solutions.

Together, we unite and strengthen Washington County!

After volunteering for UWWCE, I witnessed first hand the deep impact they have in the community. The impressive leadership compelled me to find new ways to support such a dynamic team, and joining the board was a hopeful step to increase my support of this mission centered on improving the lives of our fellow community members.
